

Accountable Kids Helper & Consultant Information

Convention Helper

Accountable Kids is always looking for convention helpers to assist in the Accountable Kids convention booth. The position of Convention Helper is a great way to attend an event, earn a little cash and learn more about becoming an Accountable Kids Consultant. Opportunities are available for full or half day shifts.

General Information

- 1) Convention helpers provide general assistance to Accountable Kids Consultants during a convention.
- 2) Helpers may be asked to help with booth setup or take down, product transportation and assistance during a workshop.
- 3) Accountable Kids reimburses $50 for half day and $100 per full day of assistance.
- 4) The first half day is a training period that is compensated with $50 in product trade.
- 4) Assistant will be trained to take orders, answer questions, and learn about sharing Accountable Kids with customers.
- 5) Booth assistants do not receive any reimbursements for travel, lodging, or meals.
- 6) Convention Helpers will receive at least one vendor badge. Helpers may have the option of using the vendor badge for the entire convention to gain access to the vending hall and attend workshops.
- 7) Accountable Kids will provide training information to Convention Helpers prior to the event.

Accountable Kids Consultant

To be considered as an Accountable Kids Consultant, individuals must first work as a Convention Helper. New Consultants are selected from individuals who have helped at a previous convention. Becoming an Accountable Kids Consultant is an exciting position that is fun, exciting, and profitable.

General Information

- 1) An invitation to become an Accountable Kids Consultant will be based on performance as a Convention Helper.
- 2) Consultants are independent contractors with a flexible schedule.

3) Consultants have the option of receiving either a commission of 15% or a base pay of $400 per event.

4) Accountable Kids provides booth supplies, displays, and product used during conventions.

5) Accountable Kids Consultants receive reimbursement for travel expenses.

6) Consultants can earn additional revenue conducting home parties, selling to stores, conducting workshops, and product development.

To be considered as a Convention helper or Consultant, please fill out the Consultant Information form and return it to Accountable Kids.

Accountable Kids strives to provide families with a resource that strengthens relationships, promotes accountability, and develops character. We want our consultants to feel they are part of team that works together for the greater good of families. Those looking for a solution will be inspired to seek out Accountable Kids, and you, as a consultant, will be part of this. Thank you for helping to share Accountable Kids across the nation.

